

Tell us what you think

Who we are:

Essex Learning Disability Partnership (ELDP) formed in 2018 and is responsible for all NHS learning disability community and inpatient services across Essex.

What we are doing:

ELDP is currently carrying out an evaluation. This short survey is for people who use our services, their families and carers, to help us understand what we have been doing well and what we can improve on.

Tell us what you think:

Have you had support from ELDP in the past 2 years? please complete our survey.
